Happy 4th Anniversary to Us!

Dog License Time!

As you all need, your dog is required by law to have a new dog license every year unless he/she has a lifetime license. During a recent visit from the Dog Warden, we were informed of the large fine an owner will be charged if a dog is not licensed. Your dog can be spot checked by the warden while here. If your pup does not wear his/her license and the number is not on file with us, you can face a $500 fine! The burden of proof falls on the owner according to the state.

Reservations

With numerous school closings/holidays and inclement weather, we have experienced more no-shows than normal. We ask that you continue to cancel any standing reservations if necessary. We do base our staff on the reservations for the following day. And a handful of no-shows takes a toll on us.

As stated in our enrollment packet, we do reserve the right to charge a customer for the day if his/her pup does not show or cancel. In our four years open, we have yet to do so. But as our numbers continue to grow, we have been forced to turn some folks away if we are anticipating being at capacity. No-shows have contributed to this as well. Please inform us of any changes in your pup's schedule. Not doing so may force us to release your pup's standing reservation.

The Royal Court of the Month

It is only fitting for these two to be together!

Maddie, a Westie, is a little fireball! She walks in the door ready to romp with any pup, big or small! Just don't underestimate her stamina!

Beau, a handsome Lhasapoo, is a little Casanova! Just like his love interest Maddie, he will get the most timid pup to romp about! And he gives us the best greeting upon his arrival.

Congrats to two big love bugs, who truly brighten the day of all the pups and humans!

Congrats to the Kids!

Canine Flu Update

Please vaccinate your pup for the Canine Influenza the next time you visit the vet. It will be a requirement for attendance just like the Bordatella vaccine in the future.

Upcoming Vacations

Before you know it, vacation season will be upon us. As many of you know, some of the staff does in-home pet sitting. In an effort to help you plan, here is the contact info for the 'sitters'. If interested, please contact them directly.
