

Warning About Heartworm Meds!

We wanted to pass along a warning about using Heartworm medications that are purchased via catalogs or online. Products from such companies are typically stored in non-climate controlled warehouses that can cause the effective ingredients to breakdown. When purchased through your vet's office, the product comes with a money back guarantee. If your dog contracts heartworm while on the medication, the manufacturer will make good. Purchasing it elsewhere will nullify that guarantee.

Drop-Off Policy

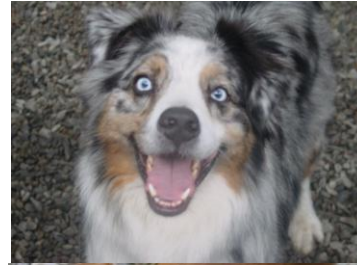

With our numbers increasing, we have decided to impose a cut-off time for dropping off your pup. We ask that your pup arrive prior to 10am. This change will not affect most of you. If this does, please speak with Heather or Shannon. You may ask why we are doing so. We have found that many dogs entering the group later in the day are getting overwhelmed. Also, it completely changes the dynamic of the group for the day. This policy is being put in place for the safety of the entire group. We will make exceptions if deemed necessary.

FACEBOOK

See your pup on Facebook! Photos are taken and uploaded daily. By becoming a 'fan' of the page, you will be alerted when new photos or important announcements are added. Some really great shots! Check us out at www.facebook.com/puppypalace.

Reservations

We apologize for sounding like a broken record. But we will have some unhappy folks on our hands when we have to turn your pup away when he/she has no reservation. Summer is over. School is back in session. And we are gearing up for a record level of guests. We have tried to be understanding up to now, but for the safety of all the dogs and proper staffing of our team, we will turn you away.

The Royal Court of the Month...

Cooper Lennert, a very energetic Australian Shepherd, is never at a loss for friends. When not romping with a pup, he can be found snuggling with his humans.

Cooper Spirk, a Boxer pup, never wants to leave The Palace at night. He has a ball with everyone, not just his Boxer family!

Congratulations to the Kids!!
